Eric Gomez is the Owner and Administrator of HomeCare Family in Atascocita, Texas, where he has led the company for over eight years. With a deep-rooted passion for service and a commitment to raising the standard of in-home care, Eric founded HomeCare Family from the ground up—independently and without franchise backing. His mission was clear: to provide high-quality, compassionate care that truly meets the needs of clients and their families.

Motivated by firsthand experiences and a strong desire to improve the industry, Eric built an agency focused on excellence. He is dedicated to hiring and retaining top-tier caregivers by offering competitive pay, ongoing education, and meaningful career development. Under his leadership, HomeCare Family has become known for its integrity, professionalism, and personal touch.

Eric has also been actively involved in the Serving Houston Seniors (SHS) for the past year, further expanding his impact and network in senior care. He is a member and Past-President of the Rotary Club of Lake Houston Area, where he focuses on service and humanitarian causes, continuing his commitment to giving back to the community.

Beyond his professional role, Eric is a devoted husband and proud father to five boys. He enjoys playing drums, singing karaoke, biking, poker nights, and embracing each day to the fullest. A passionate traveler, he finds joy in exploring new cultures and broadening his perspective through global experiences.
