Tina is a Care Coordinator at Bayou City Hospice, where she brings more than 40 years of healthcare experience to her role. Guided by her deep love and gratitude for seniors, inspired by being raised by her grandparents, Tina has dedicated her career to ensuring compassionate and dignified care for older adults.

For the past two years, Tina has served as an integral part of the Bayou City Hospice team and has been actively involved in Serving Houston Seniors for the last year. Her extensive background in healthcare and her foundation as a social worker allow her to connect with patients and families on a personal level, ensuring their needs are met with empathy and expertise.

Outside of her professional life, Tina is a proud mother of one son and one daughter and has been a devoted single mom for over 20 years. She is also an avid country dancer and a competitive West Coast Swing enthusiast, embracing balance, energy, and joy in all aspects of her life.
