TJ Barber is the Senior Business Director at Rosemont Senior Living in Humble, Texas, where he has served for the past three years. With seven years of experience in the senior care industry, TJ is dedicated to providing compassionate support and advocacy for older adults and their families.

Raised in a large Midwestern family with strong intergenerational bonds, TJ developed an early appreciation for the wisdom and value of seniors. This upbringing, combined with his passion for helping others, inspired him to pursue a career in senior living. He finds fulfillment in creating meaningful connections, supporting residents, and offering peace of mind to their loved ones.

TJ has been an active member in Serving Houston Seniors since August 2023 and continues to bring his commitment, empathy, and leadership to the organization.
